

Hayle Academy

6th April 2020

Dear Parent / Guardian

On Friday afternoon the government announced their plans for how GCSE grades will be awarded this year. There is a link below to the minister's letter to students which provides the details. Tutors will be sharing this with students.

There is little further detail we can add at this time. Over the next few weeks as more details emerge we will share them with you.

We are very grateful to the parents who have been in contact with us. Some of you have raised useful technical issues or asked for more support with particular tasks on Show My Homework. This communication has been really helpful. Some of you have simply wanted us to know how much you appreciate the care shown by staff. We really value such comments. Thank you.

I do hope this message finds you well.

Best wishes

Dan Mather

Headteacher
